

World Orphanage Foundation

MAP OF AFGHANISTAN

Feasibility Study Report on the Disabled House in Afghanistan

2019

World Orphanage Foundation

Contents

Executive Summary:	3
Meeting with the Founder of Pir-e Herat Charity Foundation:	3
Visiting Disables and Staff:	4
Conclusions:	5

Executive Summary:

Pir-e Herat Charity Foundation is a house for differently abled people (Disabled) which is famous as Hearts' Home. Sara Kazimi dedicated her time to visit this house in Herat, Afghanistan. She met Ostad Abdul Ali Barezai the founder and the staff with the group who were living there.

Meeting with the Founder of Pir-e Herat Charity Foundation:

Sara Kazimi the founder & CEO of World Orphanage Foundation visited Pir-e Herat Charity Foundation on October, 2019. During her visit to this house, she met the founder Ostad Abdul Ali Barezai. She had talks regarding his mission and vision. Through this meeting, he introduced all the departments there and the activities they were doing such as music, sport, drawing, a library to read and more. Sara Kazimi promised to help the foundation as much as she can.

Figure 1: Sara Kazimi meeting Abdul Ali Barezai

Visiting Disables and Staff:

A group of 50 disables were living in that charity foundation. A group of musicians welcomed Sara Kazimi by playing one of the Afghan folkloric song. She visited each person individually and talked to them. Furthermore, she met with the staff who were doing a phenomenal job of caring for these people. Disables were optimistic of being in House of Hearts charity foundation.

Figure 2: Sara Kazimi visiting a girl with mental disorder

Conclusions:

This meeting was fruitful and showed that disabled individuals are part of our community and have a civil law of living here and need our cooperation. Ms. Kazimi encouraged them and kept a promise of further assistance to charity head and department.

Figure 3: Pir-e Herat Charity Foundation